

(1) Map

(2) Cartoon

BEHIND THE CURTAIN

From: The Standard, (London, March 1946.)

- 1) Explain how the speeches by Stalin and Churchill (Documents A ,B and C) could be considered provocative?
- 2) Explain how Document F (the map and the cartoon) help to illustrate Churchill's statement "an iron curtain has descended across the continent."
- 3) Explain the significance of the reference to Greece in Documents B and D.
- 4) Explain how and why Truman's attitude towards Russia changed between March 1946 and March 1947.
- 5) Identify evidence in these documents which shows how the East and the West had different perceptions of 'democracy.'